

AAD 201 Fall 2019 Week 1: Introductions & What is Architectural History?

Concepts:

reproduction v. representation

three ways of conceptually organizing "history": linear (progressive) cyclical

oscillating (special case of cyclical)

Names and Terms:

built form; archetype; vernacular form; formal (specific meaning when speaking of built form);
plan, section, elevation; connoisseur; canon

Sir Banister Fletcher, The History of Architecture on the Comparative Method, 1st edition 1896